

I want our privacy laws to stay in place. In fact I would like to see them strengthened. I am having a problem with fax machines trying to call (ringing our phone) at all hours of the night. I want them stopped. The law in place has helped a lot. We used to receive a lot of soliticing calls and now have very, very few.